DISCLAIMER

Fiminco and Banque des Territoires (referred to hereinafter as the “Vendors”) have granted Rothschild & Co Immobilier (“Rothschild & Co”), an exclusive mandate for the sale of the Biocitech, a Life Science real estate campus located in Romainville, France (hereinafter the “Property”).

Recipients of this memorandum undertake to keep all of its information confidential.

All information, descriptions or comments contained in this document, which does not purport to be complete, are communicated solely on the basis of information provided to Rothschild & Co by the Vendors' management, personnel or service providers.

All plans and surface areas (in square metres or percentages) appearing in this document are provided for information purposes only.

The Vendors' shareholders or management, as well as Rothschild & Co, do not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this memorandum or in written/verbal information provided subsequently in order to accurately value the Property.

The Vendors' management and shareholders, as well as Rothschild & Co, accept no liability for errors or omissions that this information may contain. In particular, and without prejudice to the foregoing, no guarantee is given as to the accomplishment and reasonableness of forecasts, valuations and prospects contained in this document.

Recipients must therefore conduct their own analysis of all of these topics and refrain from making any claim against Rothschild & Co, the Vendors and their shareholders. It is also stipulated that potential purchasers must not contact the Vendors' management or personnel, under any circumstances, without the prior authorisation of Rothschild & Co.

This Information Memorandum does not constitute an undertaking of the Vendors to sell the Property. The Vendors hold the right to amend, suspend or terminate, interrupt or modify the sale procedure or all discussions in this regard, or to negotiate exclusively with a party of its choice, without giving any prior notice nor reasons for its decision.

As such, recipients undertake not to lodge any claims against the Vendors, Rothschild & Co or their respective shareholders, directors, and employees as a consequence of any modification, suspension or termination of the sale of the Property.

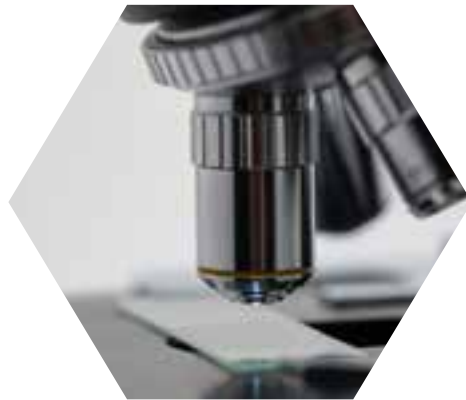

Recipients shall bear the costs of their own due diligence(s), the valuation of the Property by their own lawyers and advisers, as well as any costs (including travel costs), whether or not their final offer is accepted or refused for whatever reasons. No amount may therefore be claimed by them from the Vendors or their advisors on any basis whatsoever, and in particular in the event of any amendment, suspension or termination of the contemplated transaction at any moment prior to the execution of the definitive contractual documentation relating to the sale of the Property.

CONTACTS

All communications and requests for information concerning this document and all future information on the planned transaction must be made exclusively to Rothschild. Under no circumstances should the company, its shareholder or its officers be contacted directly.
